FOR PROTECTION OF FISH

New Law Becomes Operative in Alexandria County, Virginia.

Unlawful Use of Drag Net. Trap and Other Contrivances - Explo-

The act of the Virginia legislature for the protection of fish in the waters of the Potomac river and its tributaries within the limits of Alexandria county has become a law. Members of the local Fish and Game Protective Association are very much interested in this law. Mr. Frank Hume, who represents Alexandria county in the legislature, introduced the bill. Governor Tyler approved it, and it is now in The law makes it unlawful to capture or kill fish of any kind at any time of the year in the waters of Alexandria county, in the Potomac river and its tributaries, in tide water and above tide water, by means of trap, drag, drag net, gill net, set net, pound net, outline or trot line, or by means of explosives, drugs or poisons: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent the commissioner of fish and fisheries, or his agents, from taking fish fisheries, or his agents, from taking fish from said waters, in any manner desired or at any time, for scientific purposes or for purposes of propagation, and that none of this act shall apply to persons employed in catching young catfish, smelt, gudgeon, chub or fallish, bull minnows or pike smelt for use as balt in fishing with hook and line.

Any person so engaged in taking such fish for use as bait in fishing with hook and line or angling shall first have obtained a written permit from one of the supervisors of the county to take such fish for such purpose and for no other purpose.

The Penalty for Violation. It provides, also, that any person violating any of the provisions of this act shall. on conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not more than $50 nor less than $5. or imprisonment in the county jail or work house for a period not exceeding thirty days for each and every offense, at the dis-cretion of the justice or jury who shall try the case. The nets, boats, or other con-trivances or paraphernalia used in violating the act shall be confiscated and turned over to the sheriff of the county, who shall dis-pose of such confiscated property at public auction to the highest bidder. Any person furnishing information lead-ing to the conviction of any offender of this act before the proper official shall be paid one-half of the fine collected, and the re-mainder of such fine, together with the days for each and every offense, at the dis one-nail of the line confected, and the re-mainder of such fine, together with the proceeds of the sale of the confiscated property, to be turned over to the super-visors of said county for the repair of the roads of said county and for no other pur-

As section four of the act provides that one-half of fines collected shall be paid to the informer, local fishermen believe the law will be effective. Having already become operative the law will, it is believed, prevent the work of the "pot hunters" who are usually so numerous in Alexandria county during the spring fishing season.

AMUSEMENTS.

"NANON."-The Strakosch Opera Company presented Genee's tuneful opera "Na-non" at the Lafayette Square Opera House last night to an audience that gave in its ilberal applause every indication of its satisfaction at the performance. Mr. J. K. Murray was the Marquis and Miss Clara Lane Nanon, and both were particularly happy in the characters, singing and acting with much spirit and effect. Others in the cast deserving of mention were Ruby Paine, Fred Frear and Edward Webb. The large cast deserving or mention were Kuby Faire, Fred Frear and Edward Webb. The large chorus performed its task excellently. "Na-non" will be given tomorrow and Saturday nights, while for tonight, Friday night and Saturday afternoon the opera will be "Il Trovatore."

BARBARA FRIETCHIE .- Clyde Fitch' new play, "Barbara Frietchie," in which Julia Marlowe has made the greatest suc-cess of her career, comes from its long run at the Criterion Theater, New York, and a successful engagement in Boston to the National Theater next week. The sale of National Theater next week. The sale of seats, in which much interest is being taken, opens at the box office tomorrow morning. The play possesses a number of interesting attributes. First of all, it affords Miss Marlowe an excellent opportunity. In a series of old-fashloned costumes she is a picture for the eyes to linger on. She has seenes in the first two acts where pretty touches of half-tender, half-flippant sentimentality effectively unite with serious purpose. The seenic effects, too, are noteworthy. There is a moonlight gathering on the steps of an old-fashloned southerp house, and the colonial interiors, with their prim furniture, tasteful decorations and tidy neatness. ful decorations and tidy neatness, are shown. The play will be presented here, in the points of cast and costumes, scenery and accessories, exactly as at the Criterion Theater, New York.

MILDRED HOLLAND AS "ARIA."-The new romantic play which will be seen at the Columbia Theater, beginning next Monday evening, March 19, entitled "Aria," Monday evening, March 19, entitled "Aria," is founded on Schiller's classic "Kabale und Liebe." It was written by Theodore Kremer, and by the reception accorded it last Monday evening in Buffalo, it will doubtless attract much attention here. It is a ronantic play of the eighteenth century period, and its atmosphere will admit of much scenic splendor, elegant costumes and a company of unquestionable merit, as the following well-known people denote: A. S. Lipman, Robert McWade, George Paxton, Robert Fisher, Newton Chisnell, Bertha Creighton, Frances Brooke, Annie Wood, supporting the charming actress, Miss Mil-Robert Fisher, Newton Chisnell, Bertha Creighton, Frances Brooke, Annie Wood, supporting the charming actress, Miss Mildred Holland. Miss Holland has enjoyed a superior position with the late Augustin Daly's stock company of Daly's Theater, New York, having played opposite parts to Miss Ada Rehan in several important productions. Miss Holland has been occasionally seen in this city as Fan Fan, in the "Two Little Vagrants," a play in which she achieved considerable fame and financial support. She is now ready for higher stellar honors, and she will submit the play of "Aria" to the public with every confidence in the play, as it gives promise of being the most surprising dramatic novelty of the current season. This production has been staged by Walter Clarke Bellows, who is responsible for the staging of "The Christian" for Miss Viola Allen and many other successful stage offerings. The scenery is by Homer Emens and P. Dodd Ackerman.

OPERA AT THE LAFAYETTE .- Students of music and those who enjoy the works of the great operatic composers at the hands of competent people are afforded an opportunity seldom offered in the presthe hands of competent people are afforded an opportunity seldom offered in the presence in this city of the Strakosch Opera Company. Next week the Strakosch company will present two operas of widely different schools and covering a range of musical entertainment seldom offered in a single week. On Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings the bill will be Bizet's masterplece, "Carmen," an opera that fairly giltters with musical gems, and in the title tole of which Miss Lane, the leading prima donna of the Strakosch company, has won great brails for her wonderfully dramatic interpretation of the role. The supporting cast will comprise the full strength of the company, and no detail of an artistic production will be omitted. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings Wallace's charming opera of "Maritana," whethas for its theme a very interesting story, and one that appeals to the best traits of human nature, will be given with a strong cast and all the accessories necessary to a successful production.

KENDALL AT THE GRAND.-Ezra Ken m many respects unapproached by his com-petitors. It was because he would not "black up" with the West Minstrels in 1898 that Mr. Kendall was dismissed from that company in this city. Since then vau-deville has claimed him, and he has proved a great attraction everywhere. Next on the bill are Dolan and Lenharr, whose screambill are Dolan and Lenharr, whose screamingly funny farce, "A High-toned Burglar," has lifted them into a prominent place. Little Alice Lewis, giving songs, dances and character imitations, is another star attraction. Mile Olive, the dainty juggler, who has but recently returned from a long series of triumphant engagements abroad, and in London particularly, will furnish a portion of the bill. Mande Gage, the whisbill. Maude Gage, t tler, is one of the real novelties of the sea-son. America's Comedy Four, a most en-tertaining quartet of comedians and singtertaining quartet of comedians and sing-ers, will agreeably vary the bill. Harding and Ah Sid. the clown and Chinaman, who are among the best-known in their line, will be sure of hearty commendation. Another comedy act will diversify the bill.

"MAN'S ENEMY,"—At the Academy of Music for one week, commencing next Monday, the great London, England, melodramatic success, "Man's Enemy," will be its attraction. The play is now in its fourth year in England and in this country. Since its production here the English success has been more than duplicated. The cast is an exceptionally strong one, headed by Theodore Babcock, who is well and favorably known here through his connection with Charles Frohman and through the fact that Washington is his home. Thad Shine, another Washingtonian, is also in the cast. The scenic effects in "Man's Enemy" are said to be magnificent. At the Wednesday matinee of this engagement every lady in the audience will be presented with a souvenir photograph of Mr. Theodore Babcock. "MAN'S ENEMY."-At the Academy of cock. BIJOU THEATER.—Next week the Bijou will offer an all-star list of vaudeville entertainers, including Tom Lewis and Sam J. Ryan, formerly with Primrose and Dock-stader; Jess Dandy, Hebrew impersonator; Patterson brothers, horizontal bar performers; the musical Johnsons, the petite Tyson sisters and Rogers and Belle Dolan in "Marriage by License." The stock company will have a new skit, entitled "The Three Judges."

KERNAN'S LYCEUM THEATER—Manager Kernan has secured Phil Sheridan's City Sports Big Company as his attraction for the Lyceum for next week. The performance opens with a funny skit, "A Rube's Visit to the Theatre Francais," with Crissle Sheridan in the part of the old maid, a character she has made famous the world over, and is followed by an olio, introducing some of the best vaudeville artists in the country, namely, Miss Crissle Sheridan, Miss Fannie Lewis, the Baileys, Alice Leslie, the brothers Lowell, Mills and Hart, Miss Gertle Collins, Carr and McLeod, and the well-known Mile. Aronildi, Moulerie sisters, with the latest Parislan novelty, "The Imps' Ballet," a travesty of pantomimic splendor and art, with a chorus of twenty young ladies. The evening's entertainment concludes with a ludicrous burlesque, "The Four Married Men, or a Night of Joility," in which the whole company will be seen. KERNAN'S LYCEUM THEATER.-Man be Pachmann's Recital This afternoon,—The plane recital of the famous Russian virtuese, Vladimir de Pachmann, under the auspices of the Damrosch Society, will be given this afternoon at the Columbia Theater at 4:15. The program will be as follows: Sonata, op. 53, C major, Beethoven; Impromptu, op. 142, No. 4, F minor, Schubert; Sonata, op. 22, G minor, Schumann; Nocturne, op. 27, D flat, Chopin; Eiude, op. 10, G flat, Chopin; Eiude, op. 10, G flat, Chopin; Eiude, op. 10, G flat, Chopin; Eiude, op. 47, A flat; Invitation a la danse, op. 65, Weber. PRESERVING OLD LANDMARKS. The Parapet Where President Lincoln Was Under Fire.

The District Commissioners have received copy of the resolution adopted at a recenmeeting of the Brightwood Avenue Citizens' Association, recommending that the prop erty from and including Fort Stevens and the old rifle trenches to Rock Creek Park be secured by the United States or the District, and that they be properly marked and sacredly preserved. The resolution, which was introduced by Mr. W. V. Cox recited that "Abraham Lincoln stood on the ramparts of Fort Stevens, under fire, en-couraging the soldiers of the Union army to deeds of valor, the first and only time a President of the United States was ever ac tually in command of any army in battle," the occasion being during July, 1864, "when this fort, ably defended, saved the capita from invasion when threatened by Gen.

Jubal Early."

The association believes that what remains of these silent reminders of the war of the rebellion should be preserved as a monument to the bravery of the American soldier and to a united north and south. Mr. Cox has signified, in writing, his intention to dedicate a portion of the old earthworks to the United States or the District, on condition that other owners of property adjoining the old fort do the same, he being willing to include that part of the papapet on which Lincoin stood while under fire, the point identified by Gen. Horatio G. Wright, the commander of the 6th Corps. In acknowledging the receipt of a copy of Jubal Early." In acknowledging the receipt of a copy of he resolution, the Commissioners say they hank the association and Mr. Cox for the public spirit shown, assuring him and the association that they will be glad to co-

People Need to Take

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

This spring. The blood is thin, impure, sluggish and unequal to the demands of the body for more life, vigor, energy, strength. Nature cries for help, and it is given by Hood's Sarsaparilia, the great blood purifier, blood enricher, blood vitalizer.

"Every spring I feel so tired and weak I can hardly do my work. I get a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and before I have taken it all I am able to work. I cannot and would not do without Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. L. C. HARDMAN, 240 East Main st., Waynesbord. Pa.

"I had a breaking out all over my body and suffered from severe headache. The first bot-tle of Hood's Sarsaparilla did so much good I bought three mere, and when I had taken them was entirely cured." HARRY C. ERV-ING, 1708 N. Carey st., Baltimore, Md.

TO PRISON FOR LIFE. Qualified Verdict in the Case of Tal-

In the case of Talmadge Walker, tried n Criminal Court No. 1 for the murder of Hannibal Shorter, a verdict of guilty was reported late yesterday afternoon. The jury, however, qualified its verdict with the words, "without capital punishment." Justice Clabaugh thereupon imposed the only penalty possible under the law and the circumstances— imprisonment in the peniten-tiary for life. The jury retired about 3:30 o'clock, and the verdict was reported short-ly after 4 o'clock.

For being irrpudent to Judge Kimbail, in the Police Court today, Lily Harris was fined $5. She did not pay and was sent down for fifteen days.
